

FAITHFUL TO HIS WORD

celeBRATING 1517 IN 2017

The Canadian Reformed Theological Seminary (CRTS) and Covenant Canadian Reformed Teachers College (CCRTC) would like to invite all those with artistic abilities to help us celebrate 500 years of reformation!

You can help us and enrich your community by creating a research essay, poem, song, story or storytelling, or by making a piece of visual art in celebration of this 500th anniversary. We hope your talents will contribute to celebrations in your area around October 31, 2017 and that afterward you will submit your artwork to us for possible publication in a celebratory book.

For more information and to get some exciting new dramas or pieces of music for school bands or local ensembles check out:
